Helen's Harvest

Have you got mangoes on the way this week?
Why not try making mango chutney for the 2019 fete:

Ingredients

2 kg mangoes (firm, but ripe)
8 cardamom pods
2 cloves of garlic
1 fresh red chilli
500 ml white wine vinegar
400 g granulated sugar
1 teaspoon cumin seeds
1 teaspoon coriander seeds
1 teaspoon chilli powder
2 teaspoons nigella seeds
8cm piece of ginger

Method

1. Peel, stone and roughly chop the mangoes; set aside.
2. Remove the cardamom seeds from the pods. Peel and finely chop the garlic, then trim and finely chop the chilli.
3. Add the vinegar and sugar to a large pan over a medium heat, stirring until the sugar dissolves. Bring to the boil and reduce by a couple of centimetres.
4. Gently toast the cumin, coriander and cardamom seeds until aromatic, then crush with the chilli powder using a pestle and mortar. Add to the vinegar pan, along with the chopped mango, nigella seeds and 2 teaspoons of sea salt.
5. Finely grate in the ginger, add the garlic and bring to a boil. Reduce the heat and simmer for 45 minutes to 1 hour until it has a thick, syrupy consistency, adding the chopped chilli for the last 10 minutes.
6. Divide among sterilised jars, seal and keep for up to six months.
